Summary: Murai Trunks is at the edge of death. This poem is about Vegeta's thoughts and regrets about it.

Vegeta :Those Precious Seconds

Vegeta:Those Precious Seconds

NOTE: Yes I know it didn't happen like this in the movie. Mainly because I haven't seen it yet and figured that they should've emphasized that moment better.

I see myself.....

> I look down on you....
 My image on your face forever...

>

The blood starts to run,

> and the countdown begins,
 You were the first to go.

> I scorn on my failure,
 at protecting you,

> I didn't want you to be one of them.

Forgive me for not being the father,

> That I didn't get a chance to be,
 Forgive me for never being there for you

> When you were down and you needed me.

There you lay,

> The hole in your chest,
 But the hole in your heart is much larger.

> I sense you felt stupid for letting your guard down,
 To cry, its growing much harder.

>

Your last seconds of breath,

> I saw your stare.
 Staring,

> Struggling to live,
 They spoke _"Please tell me you loved me."_

> I wanted to place a hand on your shoulder,
 To tell you that it
was true,
> But your eyes just closed,
 As your soul started to rose,
> Off to the heavens above me.

Your armor is tarnished,
> Broke and abash,
 You wore it in honor of Saiyan,
> You wanted to show that our race was strong,
 To keep our memory
from dying.
>

Lay the eternal sleep my son,
> Dream a dream of serenity,
 Never will you walk with these mortals,
> But to soar in the skies for eternity.

Never will you drink the crystal water,
> Or a sunrise, where its warm beams flash,
 Lay there peacefully,

> My only son.
 For this,
> I will go and kick Perfect Cell's ass.
 _(what did you expect from a "Vegeta's point of view" type of poem;)_
>

I would really like some feedback. Topie's addy is at Topaz989mc@icqmail.com or Topaz989@email.com > make sure you place which poem you are talking about cause I got a ton of them.
